FOREWORD

Your 1960 issue features one of the "little people," a little chap familiar to our school and community. When he emerged from the drawing boards of the school newspaper two years ago, he acquired a name as well as a distinct personality. The newspaper staff christened him Nortavest.

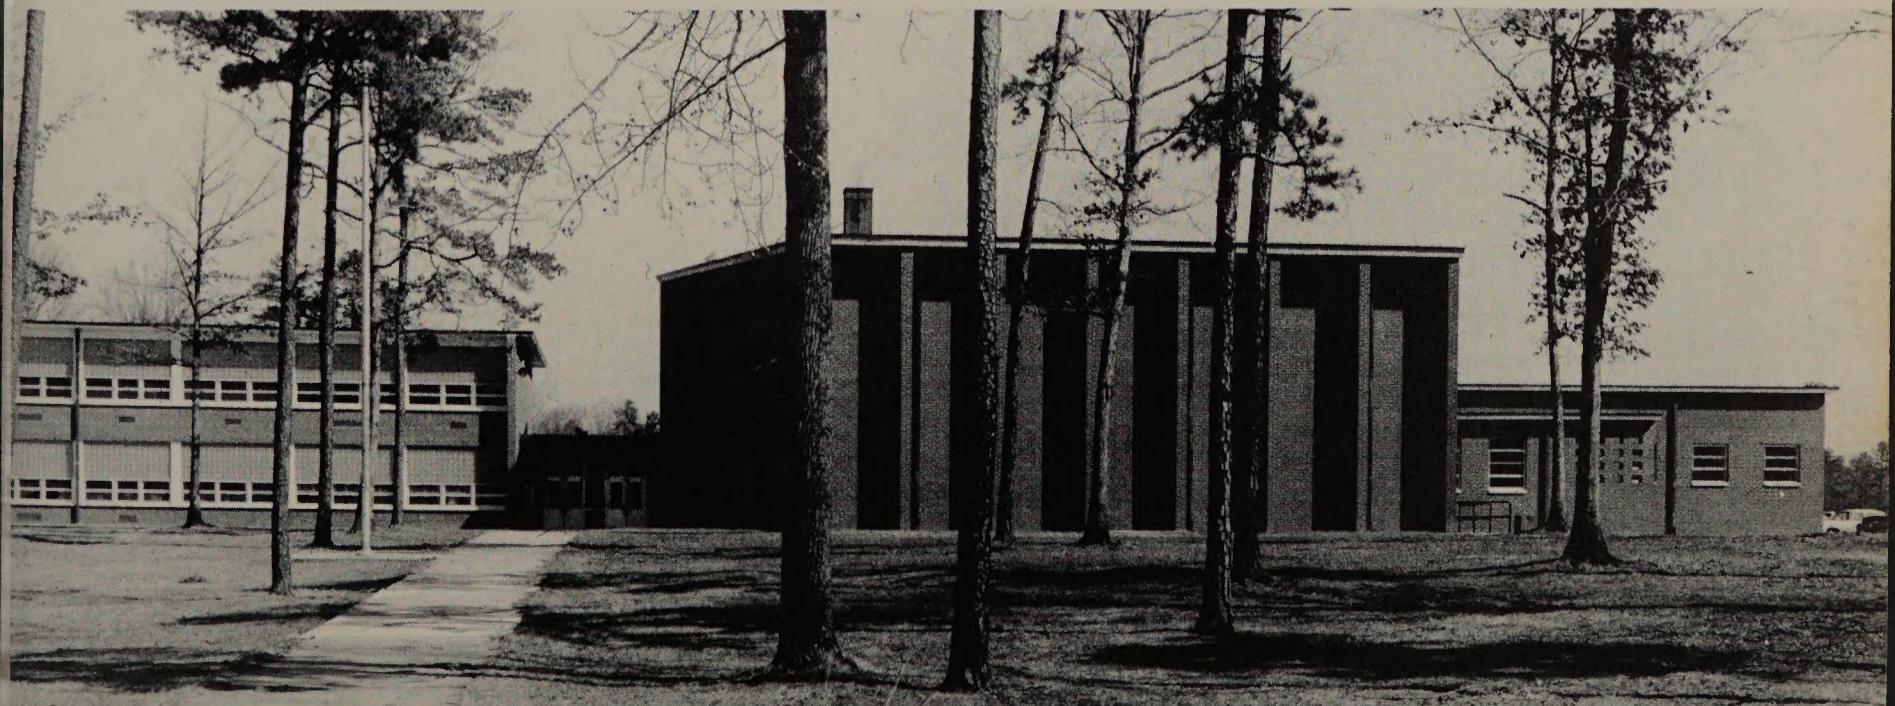

Nortavest is a composite of our students, and hence of high school students everywhere. Sometimes he is stupid, occasionally, clever; sometimes he is good, often, bad; always he learns too late and comments to himself about the clever retort he should have made and the wise thing he should have done—even as you and I.

We hope little Nortavest, drawn here by Robert Coltrane, will be one more among the pleasant reminders of your happy school year that we have tried to capture for you between the covers of your 1960 yearbook.

MRS. ROY HOLLAND

Mrs. Holland came to Northwest from Old Richmond School when the new school opened in 1955. During that first year she served as sponsor for the publications. It was she who fashioned the name of this yearbook, TOHARI, by combining syllables from the schools—Old Town, Rural Hall, and Old Richmond.

Mrs. Holland labors faithfully and successfully toward the end that her students shall be as well prepared as possible. She gives generously of her best efforts to promote the development of both school and community. The TOHARI staff is proud to offer to Mrs. Holland this recognition of her services.

Even in her spare time Mrs. Holland thinks of her responsibility as a teacher of English.

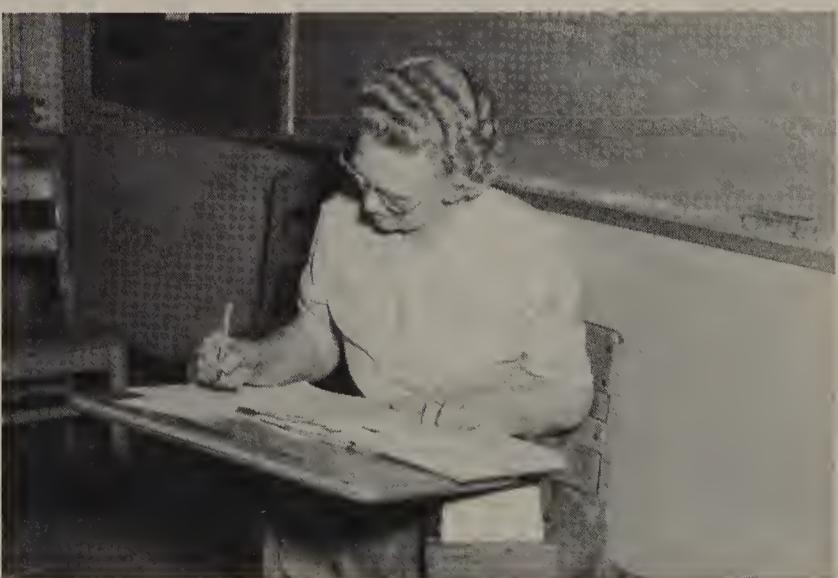

The encouragement of student writing is high on her list of obligations.

Her warm smile and her sincere interest in her students add generously to her pleasant personality.

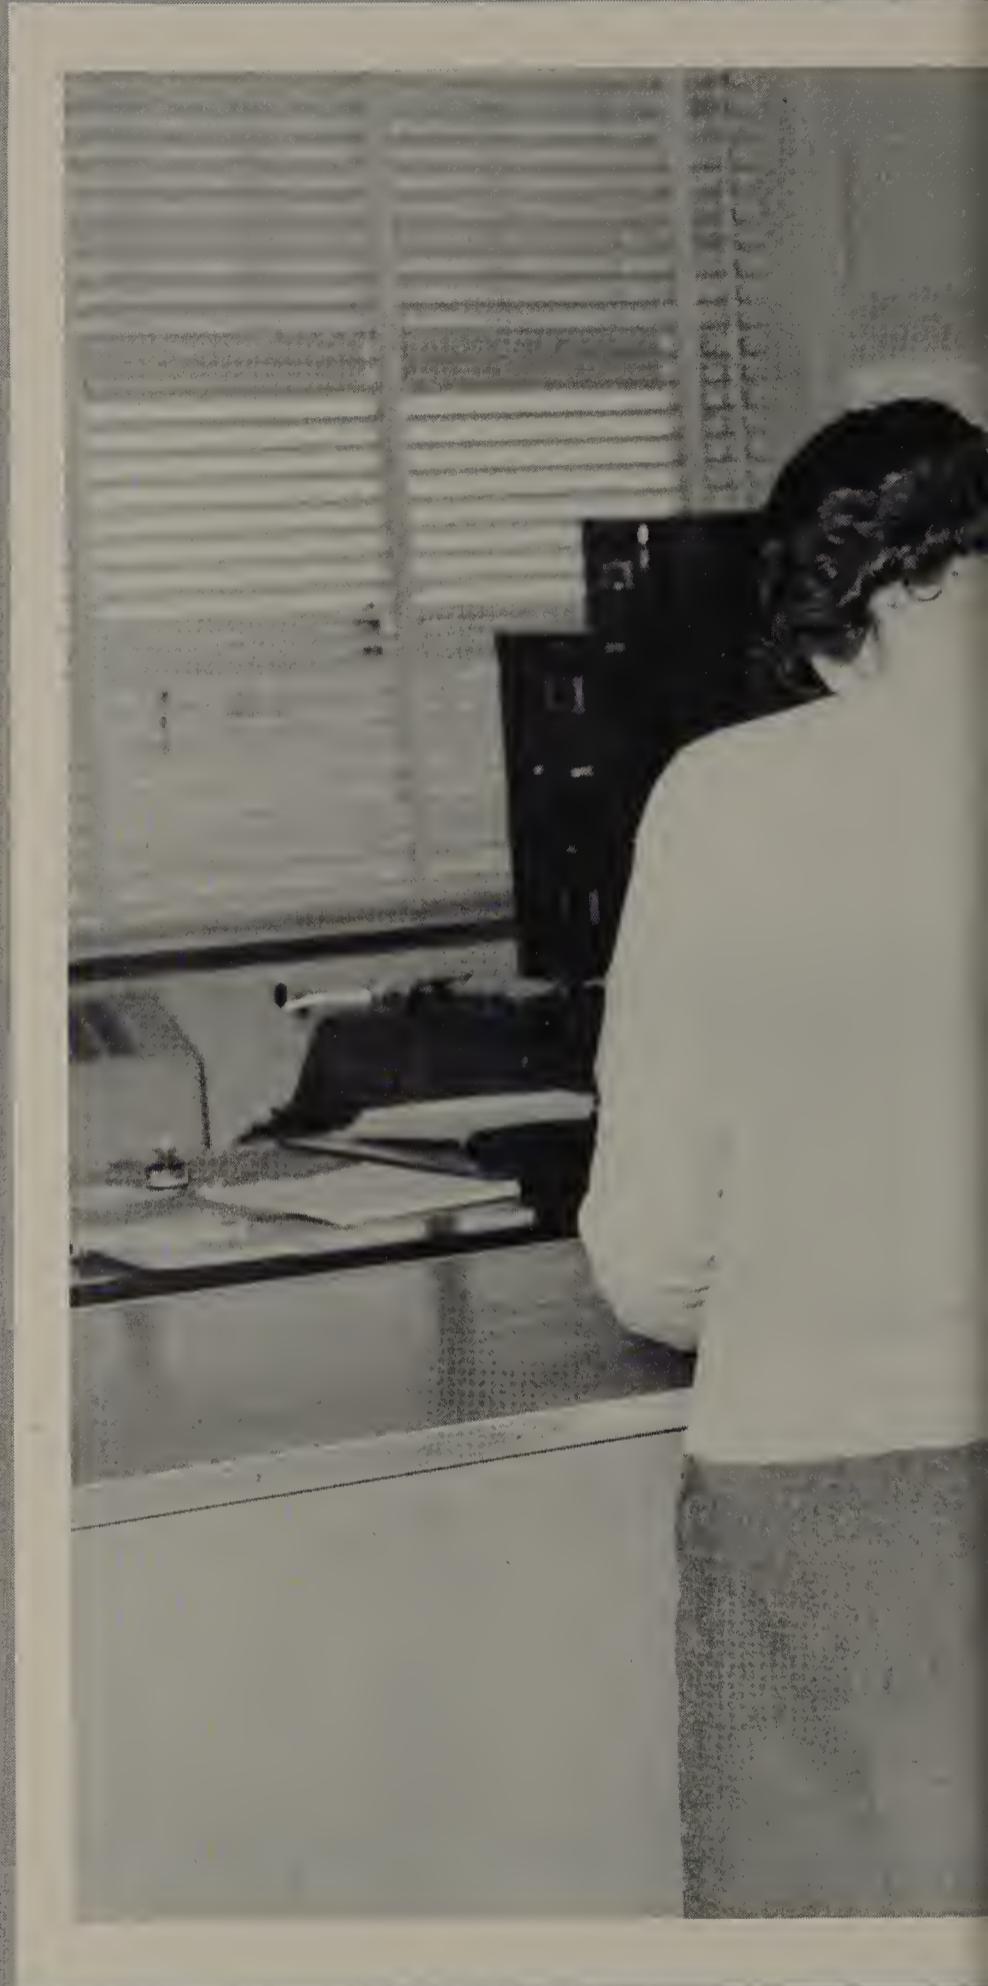

In the classroom Mrs. Holland is willing and delighted to give individual help to any of her students.

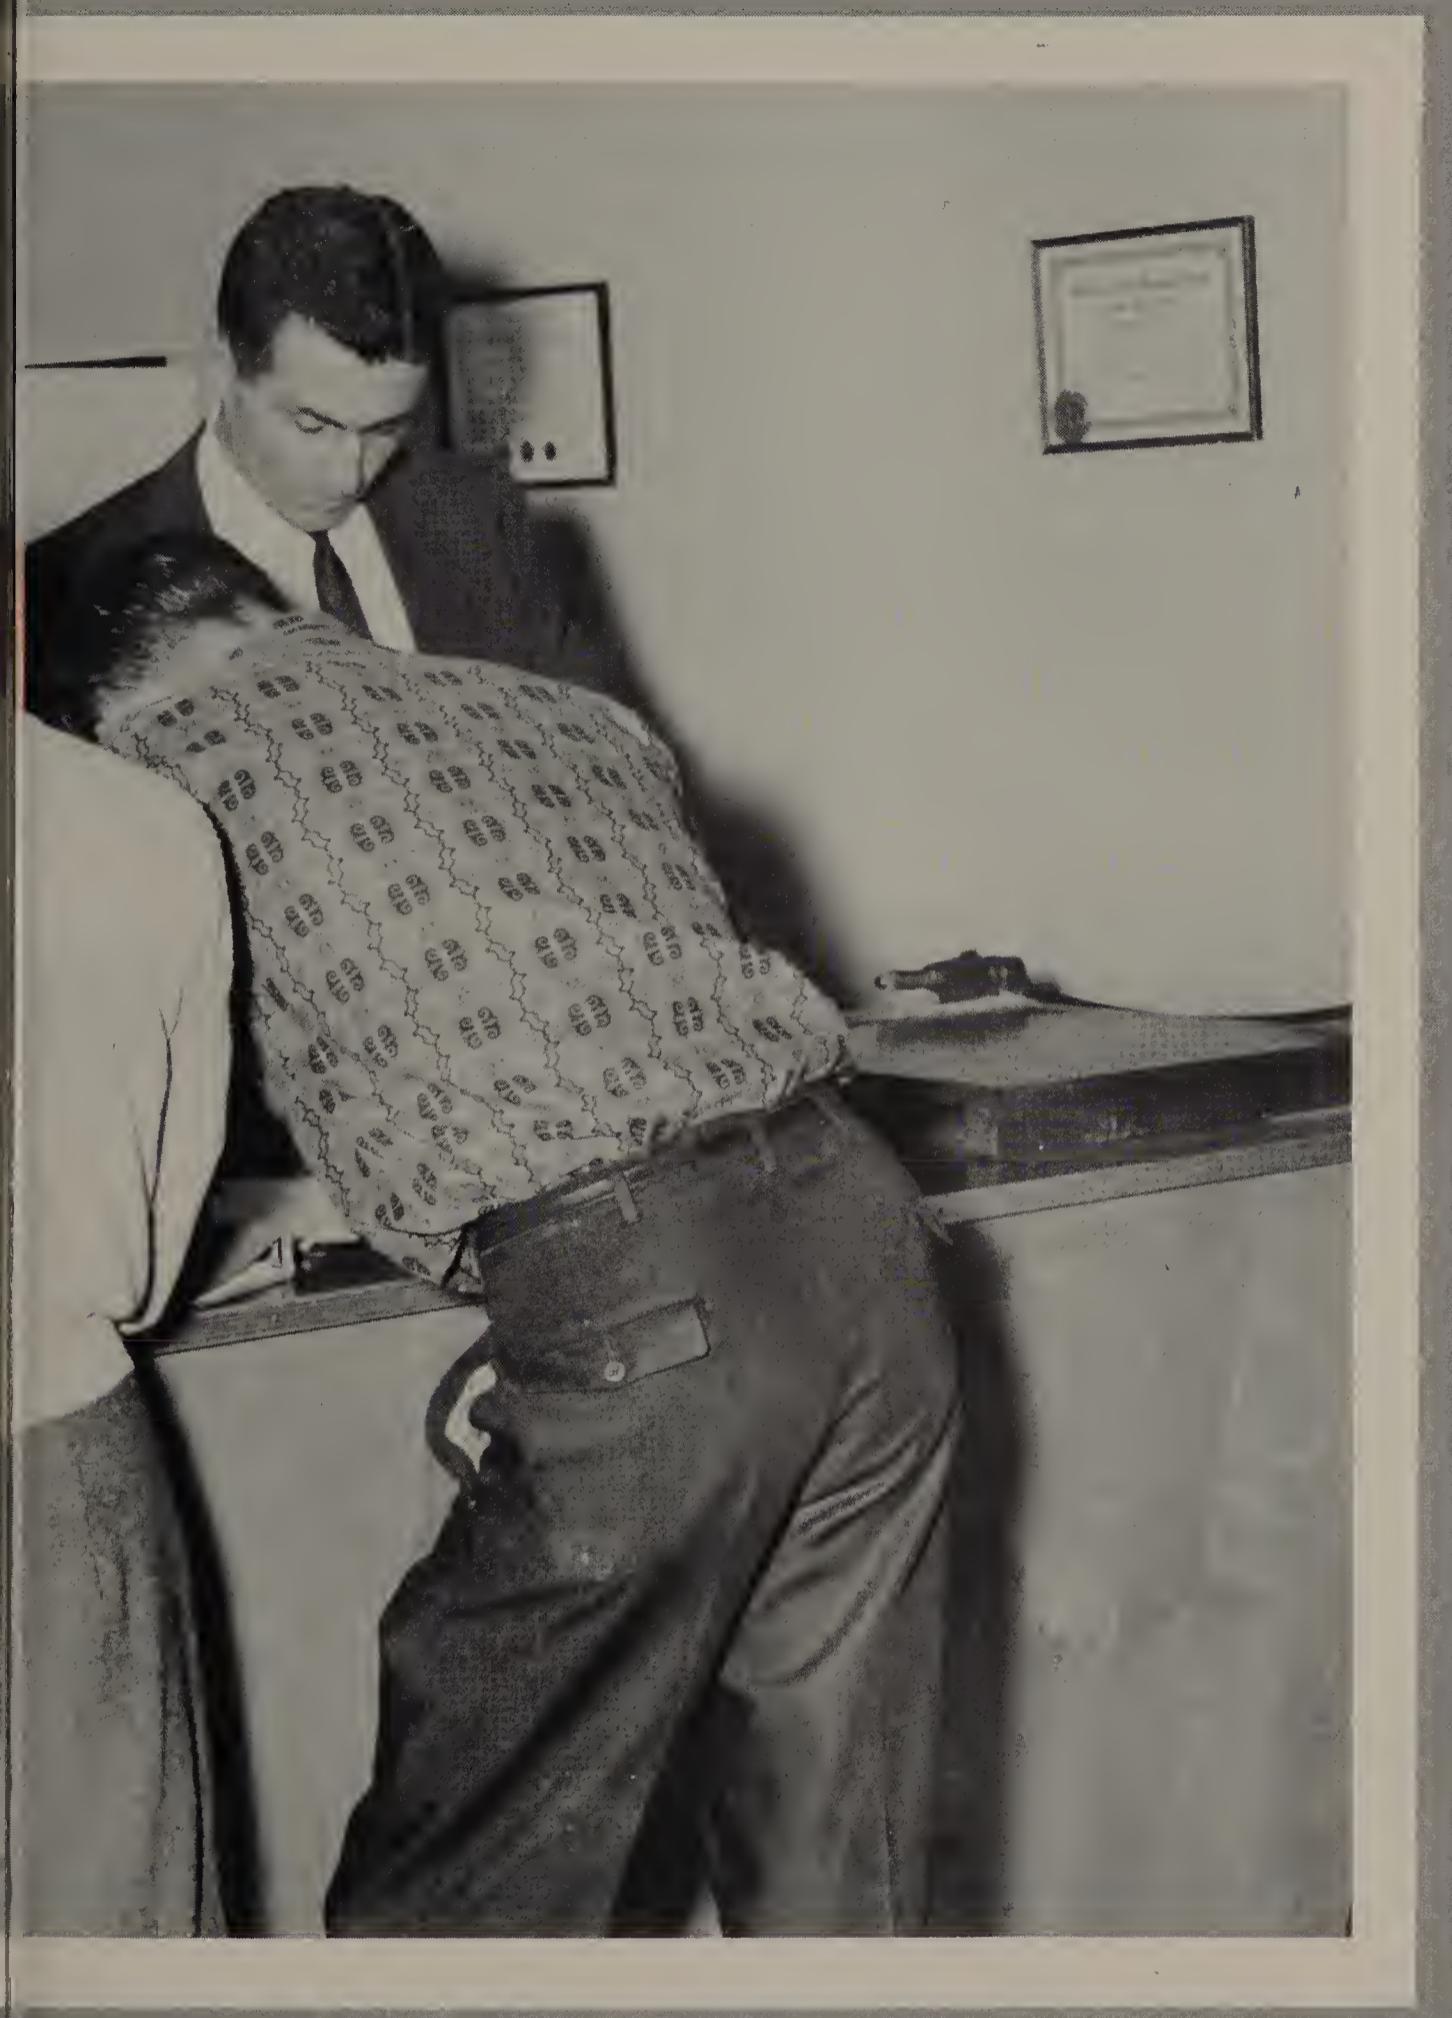

And like most other teachers, Mrs. Holland can often be found recording grades.

The Administrative Staff of Northwest High School is composed of men and women who are dedicated to the task of molding a better world. With knowledge, patience, kindness, understanding, and skill they do their best to plant knowledge in the minds of our youth.

They know the importance of a good education. They understand that the future depends on the standards, the knowledge, the courage, and the ideals instilled in the minds of youth. They formulate the policies which govern our particular school and fit it to the needs of the individual communities to which it belongs.

Under the direction of Mrs. Sapp, dietitian, Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Livengood, Mrs. W. E. Shouse, Mrs. McDowell, and Mrs. Roy Shouse prepare an excellent variety of food in our modern cafeteria.

Even though the menus are planned for all schools, our staff has to decide how much of everything and how long to allow for the total preparation of each dish.

Our food is always wholesome, abundant and attractive. Best of all, twenty-five cents will buy a meat, two vegetables, rolls and butter, and milk. No wonder our students look forward to lunch.

Mrs. Livengood and Mrs. Shouse cut a few of the thirty-five pies they bake each day.

Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Harper, and Mrs. Roy Shouse wait for the lunch hour to begin.

Mrs. Sapp, cafeteria manager, makes a check for the next menu.

The Student Council

Officers And Sponsor

The Officers of the Student Council are Steve Kiger, president; Jenny Lynn Joyce, vice president; Joellen Stith, secretary; and Frances Tuttle, treasurer; Miss Threlfall, sponsor.

Promotes Leadership In The School

Freshman Representatives: Sherry Snow, Bain Ridge, Jeanette Spencer, Frankie Thornton, Carol Long, John Crews, Jimmy Dean Long, and Johnnie Clanton.

Each spring elections for Student Council officers are held for the following year, at which time the various representatives are elected by homerooms. Their activities include operating the book store, publishing a handbook, carrying out the homecoming celebration, sponsoring dances, conducting daily devotions, scheduling assembly programs, displaying bulletin boards in the lobby and cafeteria, sponsoring the Citizen of the Year, sponsoring orientation week for the freshmen, organizing fire drills, reviewing applications with the National Association of Student Council of America, and sponsoring other projects to benefit the entire school and neighborhood.

Junior Representatives: Jimmy Morgan, Marvin Thompson, Becky Smith, Alice Smith, Jenny Lynn Joyce, and Bill Walker.

Senior Representatives: Priscilla Shouse, Katie Stanley, Carolyn Crater, Frances Tuttle, Melvin Walker, Steve Kiger, Pete Morgan.

The old members: Jeannie McDonald, Nancy Robb, Rachael Motsinger, Burnette Blakely, Frances Tuttle, David Boaz, and Ken Hartman rehearse for their induction ceremony which was held in November.

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to honor students who have excelled in academic work, demonstrated ability as school leaders, served the school, and displayed exemplary personality traits in school and community life.

The Northwest High School Chapter held its induction ceremony on November 11, 1959, at which time eight seniors and four juniors were inducted into membership.

The program consisted of an introduction by Rachael Motsinger...the president; devotionals by

The Key Club is an honorary society for high school boys who have excelled in building a good character, serving the school and community, and maintaining a high academic average.

During this year the Northwest Key Club has constructed a fine, new building to house the concession stand. The sale of cold drinks and snack-type foods at all athletic events is reserved for the Key Club and provides their chief source of revenue. They also earned money by a lively magazine selling campaign and by sponsoring a successful dance. The club uses the funds for needed projects connected with the school. Annually they present a $200 scholarship to some Northwest senior. On May 1959, this scholarship went to Ann Yarbrough who is now a freshman at Appalachian State Teachers College.

Members and their dates enjoy square dancing.

Stresses Sportsmanship.

The Monogram Club is made up of students who have earned a letter by participating in various sports, or connected with the athletic program in the school. It is an honorary athletic club with the objectives of promoting good sportsmanship, learning new games, and raising money for athletic equipment. Its projects include intramural sports programs, and the sale of programs at football and basketball games. This year the following boys were added to the list of members: Jimmy Fearrington, Melvin and Bill Walker, Guy Flynt, Paul Hepler, Steve Crotts, Pete Johnston, Paul Snell, Tony Petree, Stewart Fisher, Eddie McKinney, Allen Tothill, and Neil Shouse.

Some boys being initiated are happy that the initiation, which lasted for one week, is over.

The Hi-Y Is A Service Club And . . .

The Hi-Y, under the sponsorship of the Young Men's Christian Association, is chiefly a service club. It is open to all boys who maintain at least a C average throughout the year. A member must be formally excused from attending the meetings or he will be dropped from the club.

Under the direction of Mr. Larrimore, the boys this year have enjoyed a Hi-Y basketball team which has played nine games with other Hi-Y teams. Our boys have won three games and lost six.

The Y-Teen goals are (1) to grow as a person; (2) to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities and (3) to grow in the knowledge and love of God.

At Northwest we have Junior Y-Teens, made up of freshmen and sophomores, and Senior Y-Teens, with a membership of upper-classmen. Sometimes a speaker addresses joint meetings which are held at night. Devotions always open the programs; and usually refreshments and a social hour provide pleasant diversions.

The Future Homemakers Of America Encourages Homemaking.

The Future Homemakers of America is a service club open to all high school girls interested in homemaking and its attendant activities. The FHA has adopted a motto, "Beautiful hands are those that do."

This year has been a busy one: the girls have planted and tended the trim and beautiful flower beds about the building and grounds; they keep the lobby immaculate. Throughout the football season they prepared a meal for the football players before every game. They prepared and served the Mother-Daughter banquet in the spring; they sold the Northwest license plates that appear on so many local automobiles. They also prepared and served special meals for the Key Club once a month. At Christmas they dressed dolls for underprivileged children.

FHA Officers: Ann Terry, president; Carolyn West, vice president; Jan Disher, treasurer; Mary Westmoreland, parliamentarian; Christine Sprinkle, song leader; Carolyn Groseclose, reporter; Sally Lawson, historian; Patsy Marshall, secretary.

The Junior Engineers Club Promotes Science And Engineering.

The Junior Engineers Club is open to all high school students who are interested in engineering. It is sponsored by the Winston-Salem Engineers club. Under the direction of Mrs. Sutton and Mr. Grabbs, the club participates in the annual Science Fair, works on science projects, sponsors professional engineers to talk to the group, and distributes educational literature to members.

Northwest 0 Morehead City 27

Morehead High School bombarded Northwest with three touchdowns in a wild second quarter and went on to win the first game 27-0.

Senior Richard Bovender, playing end, and sophomore Guy Flynt, quarterback, were the outstanding players for Northwest.

Northwest 6 Mount Airy 14

Northwest lost its second straight game to Mount Airy 6-14.

Northwest scored late in the second quarter when quarterback Guy Flynt passed 15 yards to halfback Steve Kiger on the one yard line. Then Guy Flynt ran for the touchdown. A 75 yard run by Mount Airy in the third quarter gave the Bears their victory.

Northwest 0 Mineral Springs 0

Northwest and Mineral Springs battled to a 0-0 tie September 21 in a AA conference game at Northwest.

Northwest's passing superiority gave the Falcons a big edge but Mineral Springs matched it with ground power.

Northwest 12 Reidsville 19

Reidsville scored two quick touchdowns in the first period and battled off a second half comeback attempt by Northwest to give Northwest a record of 3-0-1.

Northwest 26 Walkertown 13

Northwest flashed its best offensive attack of the season to defeat Walkertown 26-13 for its first win in five games.

Bill Walker and Steve Kiger paced the heavy ground attack for Northwest. Wayne Lucas and Tommy Cash were outstanding in the line play.

Northwest 14 Griffith 13

Northwest Falcons went into third place when they edged Griffith 14-13 on October 12. The game was every bit as exciting as the score would indicate.

Griffith scored their two touchdowns in the first half. Northwest's only first half points came on a safety. But in the second half Northwest played an improved game led by Eddie McKinney, Bill Ogburn, Guy Flynt, and Steve Kiger.

Northwest 19 Glenn 7

Northwest scored two second half touchdowns to beat Glenn 19-7 in a conference game at Glenn. Bill Ogburn sparked the Falcon's second half splurge.

Larry Tise, Richard Bovender, and Tommy Jordon anchored the Northwest line and did a most outstanding job in the second half.

Northwest 6 Hanes 7

On October 23, Northwest found out that one point can mean a football game as they lost to Hanes by one point.

Hanes' only touchdown was in the first quarter after they recovered a Northwest fumble.

Northwest scored on a pass from quarterback Guy Flynt, to end G. C. Petree.

Northwest 6 Kernersville 13

Kernersville's Red Raiders came back in the last half to beat Northwest 13-6 in a AA Forsyth Conference football game at Northwest.

It rained through most of the game which definitely handicapped Northwest's passing game. Bill Ogburn, Bill Walker, and Steve Kiger led the offense for Northwest.

Northwest 25 Southwest 25

Northwest and Southwest, rival high schools, battled to a 25-25 tie, November 7, 1959, in a AA conference football game.

G. C. Petree and Bill Ogburn each scored twice for Northwest, Petree's score coming on passes by Guy Flynt.

After the game a dance was held and the victory bell, owned by the two schools, was represented to Northwest.

The Majorettes of Northwest High School are selected in the spring of each year. Through a summer of hard work and practice, following their election, they prepare for the football season. They must learn many of the original routines and create new ones of their own. One of their special routines includes twirling fire.

When football season is over, their work is not finished. They are a part of the band and play with that group for the entire year.

Majorettes rehearse in the lobby.

During the course of this school year many important events occurred that all Northwest students want to remember, the Junior-Senior Prom, graduation, homecoming, the opening of our new auditorium, and, of course, intramurals.

The pretty girls pictured here were garnered from "among those present" at these occasions. Pat Gibson, a freshman, dreams of frills and flowers.

A warm glow will surely always accompany our backward glances at these...

The seniors receive their diplomas.

Following the exercises, the graduates are escorted out of the gym by the marshals.

Diplomas And Depart But

On May 28, 1959, at 8:00 P.M., one hundred and twenty three Northwest High School Seniors filed into the gymnasium for their graduation exercises.

The seniors entered to the "March from Aide." Tim Powell presented the Invocation which was followed by speeches from Frank Stith, III, Linda Barr, and Joan Foster.

Mr. Wesley Watkins awarded the diplomas to the last group of seniors to graduate in the school gymnasium.

After receiving their diplomas, the class sang the school song and then slowly made their final exit to "Pomp and Circumstance."

The last graduate walks out with the marshals following. High school days are really over for them.

Homecoming Queen

The Homecoming Events.

The 1959 Homecoming events were held in the gymnasium because of bad weather. The festivities began with a welcoming address to the alumni after which the sponsors of the football players, their escorts, and the homecoming court were introduced.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Queen Frances Tuttle by Becky Gowens, the queen of '58. Each member of the court was presented with a crown and beautiful bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The sponsors and their escorts then led the Grand March as the prelude to an evening of dancing and fun.

The Honor Graduates

The honor graduates for the class of 1960 were selected after the first semester. The selection is based on the academic rating of the students in the senior class. According to the point system approved by the Southern Association of Secondary Schools: the grades were totaled with an "A" counting as 4 points, a "B" as 3 points, a "C" as 2 points, and a "D" as 1 point. All candidates' scores had to be at least 63 in order to be one of those selected. The highest score that one could attain was 70.

Of one hundred and forty-eight seniors, eleven met the required standards.

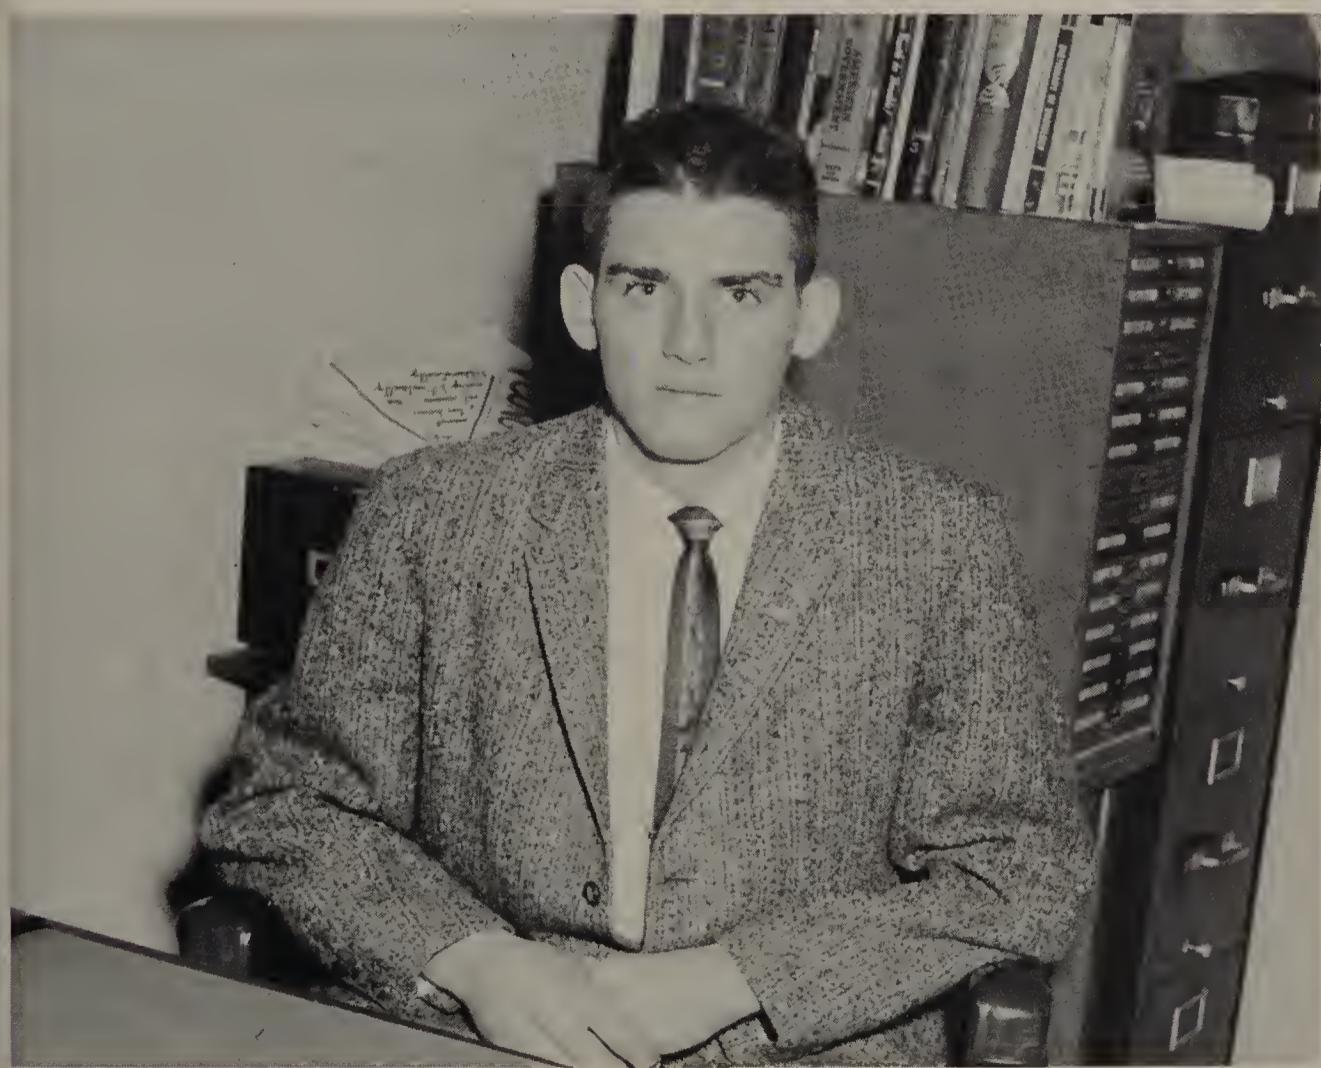

Girls' State Delegates

KATIE STANLEY and FRANCES TUTTLE

Katie Stanley and Frances Tuttle were elected by the D. A. R. in the spring of 1959 as the Girls State Delegates from Rural Hall.

Girls State is a mock legislature made up of representatives from communities all over the state which convene and hold meetings like the regular legislature. It is designed to interest girls in the government of the state.

Boys' State Delegate

RICHARD BOVENDER

Richard Bovender was chosen in the spring of 1959 to attend Boys State in Raleigh.

Boys State is run on the same principle as Girls State, as a mock legislature to interest young people in the government of the state. The most outstanding boy, or girl, goes to Washington.

~~REDACTED~~

Carol,
It's been swell all these past years - Remember the Junior-Senior, and the Hay ride - boy, didn't we have fun - Hope you have loads of fun this summer. I see ya.

WOW!
— Love, Marva

Carol,

I have enjoyed it the most this year and last. In fact I have liked Northwest better than any school I have been too.

I have enjoyed your friendship and hope it will last.

We really enjoyed French didn't we, but did Mr. Juyl enjoy us?!? Of course he did.
Never forget the times we spoke French(?) with a "Southern Twit". It was real cool!

I have enjoyed knowing your Mother.
I think she is real nice and can cook good.
I assume I ate something she cooked along the line.

Never forget I am Harry's cousin, yours,
and of course G.C.'s.

Best of luck and success - You deserve ^{A Product of} it - After first year French who wouldn't -

333 INDIANA AVENUE
WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

P.S. I wish Mr.
Tally would give me another collipop love.
Here's hoping I see you again.

Katherine Pinkston

Best wishes to a very nice girl. Stay sweet and I'll see you next year.

Always.
Marta Chappell

Carole,
This has really been a good year and it will be going to make the winter better aren't See you next fall

Bob Evans

had a great night in my yard around 10:30 last evening. Found a lot of food with some dried leaves under snow and under food stuff like strawberries, grapes, etc.
and also some dried leaves, corn, corn
husks, corn stalks, etc. No doubt it's from the maple trees around my house.

Carol!
place in your self that we havent
I feel as friendly & each been this year as our first other years. I know the reason why I had a single feel years because we havent had a single it's because we together this year. I really regret it.

Best wishes to a fine girl and one with a swell sense of humor - Don't ever let a bad experience stop you from getting out there is a lot of fun in life. Be a true friend, Carol Porter

Solid Luck to a real nice girl, have fun this summer, see you, Gene Wadlers.

Carol,
I miss the little bird I do by concrete to know that it has been a lot of fun this year especially in March. Many of you always think the best luck is all you can take to do. Since from this summer I will never

Best of everything to a real sweet girl. Bye Walker

Best wishes to a real girl. May you find happiness in your chosen it.
Jimmie Green

Carol,
May the best of everything be yours
Yours, Becky Smith

Carol,
It has been a pleasure knowing you this year. You have a happy personality.
Best of luck

Robey

Carol,
You are a wonderful girl with a great personality. Be good and keep reputation up by doing always what you promise.
Remember me to
Mrs. Stanley Hall
and Mrs. Palmer
and Mrs. Gandy.

Best wishes &
real love
Diane June
Bremner

Best wishes and lots of luck to a sweet girl.
Judi

Best of luck
and nice to a girl. Remember what I told you about you and class and what we talked about
